A beautiful escape alongside the Chesapeake Bay – welcome to Havre de Grace. If it’s your first time here, stop by the Visitor Center for more information on everything to see, and enjoy! Exploited by the town’s marina, read up on Havre de Grace at the Public Library. What makes this town so special are the many specialty shops available to visitors throughout the year. Check out Pizzazz for home accents, Island Jack for fashion, Biller’s Bikes to help you get around town, Bahoukas for one-of-a-kind finds, or Distinctive Decor for home furnishings. Looking for a tip? Try the Rampant Lion. After shopping, grab a bite at one of several memorable places, like The Vineyard for a glass of wine, the Laurrapin Grill, serving many locally-sourced ingredients, or MacGregor’s, a favorite for 25 years. Afterwards, don’t go home! Instead, stay at the Vandiver Inn or the Spencer Silver Mansion. And, if you like the town, why not bring your next event here? Check out La Banque de Fleuve.
