

ROAD TRIP! CHESTERTOWN

Welcome to Chestertown ... a slice of Eastern Shore Americana. Whether you stroll the historic grounds of Washington College, or attend one of the many events that this Main Street offers, you're going to have a great time. Start your day the right way by picking up something good for you at Chestertown Natural Foods, and then head to the BookPlate Book Store for your next page-turner. If you're lucky, when strolling down to Robert Ortiz Studios, you'll run into the artistic craftsman himself, Robert Ortiz. Continue your shopping at Mimi's Closet and Houston's Dockside Emporium, and then it's time for lunch! Why not try the Lemon Leaf Café? Afterward, head to The Finishing Touch for some more shopping. If you're there on Dec. 10, you're in luck: the 27th Annual Holiday House Tour. Need a lovely B&B to spend the night? Try the White Swan Tavern. Enjoy!

Bookplate offers a wide selection of books on dealing with the history of Maryland, Maryland's Eastern Shore and the Chesapeake Bay. Bookplate also has one of the largest collections of maritime history on the east coast and just added a new collection on Scandinavia. For good measure, we sell one of the finest Spanish olive oils ever pressed.
