

ROAD TRIP! THURMONT

Colorfest is coming to Thurmont! Make plans now to attend. And, if you want to plan a larger stay around Frederick County, stop by the new Visitors Center that you'll find easily off I-70. When in Thurmont, a town like no other, make time to visit the Catoctin Wildlife Preserve and Zoo. Afterward, pick up some fresh apples at Catoctin Orchards. There are lots of unique things to see and enjoy around Thurmont – from Gateway Market to the Hillside Turkey Farm, historical images of Thurmont at R.S. Kinnaird to home décor at Timeless Trends. Need to hit a bank before finding a restaurant? Visit Woodsboro Bank. Then, when it's time to eat, you can head to Simply Asia, Mountaingate Family Restaurant, or even the famous Cozy Restaurant, which also has a museum on Camp David, the President's retreat. Better yet, make Thurmont the hub of a longer stay in the area. Rent a luxury cabin at Ole Mink Farm. And, if you make a mess of it, you might want to think about Busy Bee Cleaning.
